

Architectural and Engineering services for the Residential Seismic Inspection in Tashkent area.

U.S. Embassy in Uzbekistan is going to conduct residential seismic inspection of rented houses in Tashkent area. Firms responding to this announcement on or before closing date will be considered for selection using the following evaluation criteria:

Examples of previous work should be submitted that demonstrate the firm's experience.

Firm Experience

- Demonstrated experience in performing seismic suitability inspections on existing single-family homes, mid-rise, and high-rise apartment buildings.
- Demonstrated experience in design of new single-family homes that meet current seismic standards
- Demonstrated experience in design of reinforcing and strengthening existing single-family homes to meet seismic standards
- Demonstrated experience in quality assurance/construction oversight on new construction and reinforcing/strengthening existing buildings.
- Demonstrated experience performing work in Uzbekistan
- Demonstrated success on similar projects in terms of quality of work and compliance with schedules

Professional Qualifications

- Sufficient personnel capacity and equipment/tools to accomplish work;
- Sufficient education of personnel to be assigned to work under this contract in the field of seismic structural engineering
- Licensed Professional Engineer

Resumes of key individuals may be attached.

The Embassy will select for negotiation the licensed firm that demonstrates the best qualifications. Replies to this advertisement must be received not later than noon local time on January 12, 2016.

The application for participation should be submitted via e-mail tashkentprocurement@state.gov or send as a hard copy to the next address: GSO/Procurement, U.S. Embassy Tashkent, 3 Maykurganskaya Street, Tashkent, 100093. Phone: +99871 1205450; Fax: +99871 1206335